DOMINION OF SEALS.

Annual Report of James Sheakly, Governor of Alaska.

BRITISH MAINLY RESPONSIBLE,

Says the Governor, for the Ruthless Destruction of Female Seals at Sea, by Wholly Ignoring the Provisions Laid Down by the Paris Tribunal.

WASHINGTON, Oct 15.—James Sheakly, governor of Alaska, in his annual report to the secretary of the interior, says regarding the disappearance of the seals:

"No one of all familiar with the past history of the Islands can look upon the desert of rookeries to-day and not realize with crushing force how great has been the diminution of seal life, especially of the reproductive class, the females."

The governor says that the claims of the Canadians and the British that the excessive killing of seal on land is the cause of the depletion is disproven by the statistics. He says that on the rookeries now there are many male seals, while females are scarce. The diminution is due directly to the killing at sea, where no discrimination can be made as to the sex of the seals. He says that better protection must be granted them than is afforded by the Paris tribunal, and that the schooners have not been able to make the usual catches this season, the catch of the British vessels being not over 200 per vessel.

He says of the British vessels: "Their only hope of saving themselves from loss was Behring sea, as the supply here (Pribyloff) is greatly diminished. Great Britain gave to the Canadian sealers increased facilities by availing herself of a technicality, and violating the clear intent of the Paris regulations relating to firearms. When the Canadian authorities secured from England what is practically a repudiation, or at least a negation of the Paris tribunal, they knew it would be possible for British Columbian schooners coming from the Asiatic side of the sea to use the allowed firearms and evade detection by asserting that the skins found on board with shot wounds while in Behring sea were skins taken on the Japan coast."

The governor says that the remedy for the evil is simple, but "under existing conditions its application is difficult, unless Great Britain has forfeited, by her recent action, all right to consideration, and the United States hold with a firm hand all vessels engaged in destroying seals. The remedy laid down by the Paris tribunal has proved a failure."

The governor says that 15,000 skins were taken on the islands this year, and 38,000 were taken by poachers, 75 per cent. of which were females.

The governor says that the patrol of the sea by the United States has been of the best, and the government has acted in good faith in its efforts to enforce the Paris tribunal.

The governor discusses at some length the mining industries of Alaska, and says that the production indicates that it will be a profitable and permanent industry. The laws of the mining country are administered by the miners themselves, and it is wholly impracticable to try to exercise government control of the mines at present.

Upon the subject of the Alaskan boundary the governor says: "The people of Alaska, over the whole country, expect and believe that the government of the United States will defend and maintain our right to all the territory, included within the boundary line fixed and agreed upon by treaty made between Great Britain and Russia in 1825, and acquiesced in for nearly three-quarters of a century without question or dispute."

West Virginia Oil Prospecting.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 16.—A syndicate composed of foreign and local capitalists has succeeded, it is said, in securing oil leases of all the lands in this country between the Ohio river and Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. Arrangements were made yesterday to drive six to eight test wells at once in a part of the territory covering six miles, and this plan will be kept up until the entire section has been tested.

ALTOONA, Pa., Oct. 16.—Hackett Lehy, the 18-year-old son of Caron Lehy, a prominent coal operator of Lilly, Columbia county, was playing in a sawmill at that place when he fell against a circular saw. His body was cut through from the left shoulder to the left leg, and death was instantaneous.

Fears of Hydrophobia from a Horse Bite.

Ohio Miners Decline to Strike.

POMEROY, O., Oct. 16.—A mass meeting of miners of Pomeroy Bend was held last night to consider the matter of striking for an advance of one fourth of one cent per bushel. It was decided to continue mining at the old price, a cent and three-fourths, until the river rises. The miners are badly disorganized. A two cent rate is being paid on West Virginia side.

A Charitable Bequest Invalid.

TRENTON, Oct. 16.—Chancellor McGill rendered an opinion declaring invalid that portion of the will of the late Hezekiah B. Smith, of Smithville, which provided for the formation of a charitable school to teach boys the machinist trade. The chancellor holds that the object was not set forth with legal definiteness in the will. About $200,000 is involved.

Must Die in the Electric Chair.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Thomas Kerrigan, whose appeal against conviction for the murder of Aaron Alexander was denied by the court of appeals, was yesterday sentenced by Judge Ingraham in the court of oyer and terminer to be electrocuted during the week commencing Dec. 2, 1895.

A VENERABLE JUDGE DEAD.

Served for Twenty-six Years on the Bench in Pennsylvania.

BLOOMSBURG, Pa., Oct. 16.—Hon. William Elwell, president judge of the Twenty-sixth judicial district of Pennsylvania for nearly twenty-six years, died yesterday, aged 87 years. He was born at Athens, Bradford county, Pa., and received a good academic education. He read law with Hon. Horace Williston, and was admitted to the bar of Bradford county in 1833, opening an office in Towanda, where he practiced for sixteen years. He was elected to the house of representatives in 1841, and in 1862 he was elected president judge of the district composed of Columbia, Wyoming and Sullivan, was re-elected in 1872, and again, after Sullivan county had been taken off, was re-elected in 1882 without an opposing vote. He was continued on the bench until July, 1888, when he resigned on account of ill health.

Monster Convention of Miners.

CLEARFIELD, Pa., Oct. 16.—Between 10,000 and 15,000 miners attended the convention here yesterday to discuss the situation and to take steps towards securing an increased wage scale. The meeting was well attended by representatives from the central and northern Pennsylvania coal fields. Nothing definite was decided upon, but it is said that the prospects are favorable for a general strike throughout the entire region, and that the miners at Glen Richey, near here, have already quit work. Another meeting is being held today.

Fatal Freight Wreck.

BRADFORD, Pa., Oct. 16.—A bad wreck occurred on the Buffalo division of the Western New York and Pennsylvania railroad. As a north bound freight train was passing Eldred station the locomotive left the rails and plunged down an embankment, followed by eleven loaded cars. Fireman Jesse Baxter, of Buffalo, was caught beneath the engine and crushed to death. Engineer Brockway and Brakeman Hagmire, both of Buffalo, were seriously injured. It is feared the engineer's injuries will prove fatal.

Two Killed at a Crossing.

NEWARK, N. J., Oct. 16.—Two men were killed by engine No. 136 at the Lawrence street crossing of the Central railroad. They were Patrick O'Connor, 35 years of age, and Peter McKellar, aged 30, an employe of O'Connor's. O'Connor's body was cut in two and his head crushed. McKellar was frightfully mangled, but lived until he reached St. Michael's hospital. The gates at the crossing were not down and the railroad is held responsible for the accident.

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 16.—Maria Smith, alias Conter, alias Burler, alias Jackson, was brought here last night by Constable John Crawford, of this city, who arrested her near Morristown, on a charge of bigamy preferred by Perry Smith, who says he is the latest of four husbands of the woman. She admits a dual matrimonial relation, but says that when she married Smith she thought her former husband was dead. She takes her arrest very coolly.

To Advance Molders' Wages.

LAWRENCE, Mass., Oct. 16.—The request made a week ago by the local iron and brass molders that their employers establish the rate of wages at $2.50 a day has been favorably considered, and will probably be granted. The molders at the Emerson Manufacturing company's works received a favorable announcement from their employers, and it is expected the other manufacturers will follow suit soon.

Troops to Suppress a Prison Riot.

HAVANA, Oct. 16.—A serious outbreak occurred in the jail of Santa Clara yesterday. Before it was suppressed General Luque had to send troops to the scene of the disturbance. Four of the ringleaders of the riot were made prisoners by the soldiers, and when they subsequently tried to escape three of them were shot; but one of the captured ringleaders succeeded in getting away.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 16.—United States Senator Gray and H. H. Ward, acting as counsel for the Cubans recently tried on charges of intended filibustering and acquitted, have made a demand upon the collector of customs for the arms seized. The collector has notified the authorities at Washington of the demand, and will await orders.

Murdered in a Dagnio.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 16.—A quarrel between four colored men in a house of unsavory reputation on Lemon street resulted in James Brooks being shot through the heart, while Joseph Robinson was badly wounded. William Green, the murderer, was arrested, and William Bess, Bessie Minor and Rosa Simpson were held in $500 bail as witnesses.

CORBETT IN ARKANSAS

The Champion Pugilist Expects to be Arrested,

AND THUS GET THE CASE IN COURT

Meantime Governor Clarke and General Taylor Insist That the Fight Shall Not Take Place, Even with Soft Gloves, as Now Proposed.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 16.—Governor Clarke's determination to stop the Corbett-Fitzsimmons mix-up at any cost was emphasized yesterday by the presence in this city of General Taylor, of Forrest City, brigadier general of the Arkansas state guard, who was summoned to the capital to confer with the governor in regard to the strength of the state militia. General Taylor was in conference with Governor Clarke for an hour, and when seen later by a reporter was preparing to take the afternoon train for Hot Springs.

General Taylor said positively that the fight would not occur. His purpose in going to Hot Springs, he said, was to warn the people there against the danger to which they would subject themselves should any attempt be made to bring the contest off. He could, he said, with a few hours' notice, land 850 well drilled and fully equipped men in Hot Springs.

Governor Clarke was not disposed to talk. He reiterated his former declaration that the fight would not be permitted to take place, and in this connection said he could make no distinction between a prize fight and a glove contest.

"Suppose, Governor Clarke," suggested the reporter, "Corbett and Fitzsimmons should desire to give an exhibition of physical culture in Hot Springs on Oct. 31, in which large gloves were to be used, would that be stopped by military force?"

"Corbett and Fitzsimmons shall not meet in Hot Springs in any kind of a contest," said Governor Clarke emphatically. "If they ever meet they will fight, and they shall not fight in Arkansas. They shall not meet in Hot Springs, either in or out of a ring. They shall not even shake hands." When asked if Corbett would be arrested on his arrival at Hot Springs Governor Clarke said that a good general never disclosed his plans to the enemy.

Information comes from a private source that the Florida Athletic club is considering a plan by which they hope to overcome the obstacles placed before them by Governor Clarke. The scheme is to turn over the whole affair to the Hot Springs Athletic association, which was incorporated by the state of Arkansas in 1895. According to its charter the association was organized for the purpose of carrying on the business of and maintaining a park for amusement at or near the city of Hot Springs, where races, athletics and games may be practiced and exhibited, and other amusements and means of entertainment may be furnished.

Under this charter the people interested believe they can conduct a boxing match limited to a specified number of rounds with soft gloves without violating any state law. The matter has been submitted to two of the best lawyers in the state, and they declare that the contest cannot be legally prevented.

In order to clinch the matter and prevent any interference on the part of the legal authorities the fight managers have arranged for a glove contest to take place at once. It is therefore possible to have these contestants arrested and taken before Judge Duffie to determine the matter in the courts. If Judge Duffie agrees with the opinions given by the lawyers the fight cannot be stopped. If he decides against the athletic club officials an appeal will be taken to the supreme court.

When informed of this scheme Governor Clarke stated that the state chartered corporations and associations for legal purposes only and no violation of the law would be tolerated under the guise of amusement.

CORBETT ARRIVES IN ARKANSAS.

His Probable Arrest Will Bring the Case Into Court.

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., Oct. 16.—Manager Joe Vendig and President Dan Stuart have been in receipt of telegrams and letters by the score containing all sorts of propositions and guarantees of protection and immunity, but they are not disposed to swerve from the original intention with reference to Hot Springs, unless they are satisfied that under the present arrangements and change of contract the exhibition will be an infraction on the law. The contract as changed provides for a twenty-five round boxing contest under Marquis of Queensberry rules, with soft gloves, which shall not weigh less than five ounces.

Corbett arrived last evening, but stopped at Spring Lake, which he will make his training quarters. He will be in the city today, and will give a show in the Opera House in the evening. He fully expects to be placed under arrest, as promised by the governor, and the people here are anxious that the whole matter shall be brought into the courts, in order to settle what is really the law. By the decision of the courts the Florida Athletic club is willing to abide.

Fitzsimmons is still at Corpus Christi, Tex., Julian refusing to bring him here until a guarantee fund for legal expenses is raised.

Steve Brodie for Referee.

OMAHA, Oct. 16.—Steve Brodie, who has been playing in this city, received a dispatch last night saying he had been chosen referee in the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight, which will occur when a place can be found where the mill can be pulled off. Brodie was one of six men who were under consideration for referee by the Florida Athletic club. He is a warm friend of both pugilists and was chosen by both men.

Fell with a Mine Cage.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Oct. 16.—The engineer in charge of the hoisting carriage at the Empire shaft lost control of the engine, and one of the carriages, with ten men aboard, went down the shaft with considerable force. All the men were more or less injured, but none fatally.

THE MYSTERY OF KOREA.

No Confirmation of the Reported Assassination of the Queen.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—There is still no official confirmation here of the reported assassination of the queen of Korea, and although there may be politic motives for a concealment for a time of such a tragedy, officials here think it possible the queen may be alive, as the dispatches are somewhat doubtful on this point.

It is recalled that a similar state of affairs existed in Korea in 1882, and that then the report was circulated that she was dead. At that time this same Tai-Wen-Kun, the father of the king, who is said to have led the last attempt upon the queen's life, attacked the palace with a large band of adherents and captured the persons of the king and queen. The queen was condemned to be poisoned, but by the sublime devotion of one of her handmaidens she escaped. The maid took the poison and the queen was secretly carried off by her friends and hidden in the mountains, while the report was sent out that she had been killed.

The Chinese government, which maintained its suzerainty over Korea almost entirely through the active support and sympathy of the queen, took active steps to redress her wrongs, and, sending a large force of troops to Korea, reinstated her and her husband on the throne and carried old Tai-Wen-Kun off into exile in China, from which he was subsequently released.

Tired of Being a Fugitive.

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 15.—Ross C. Vanbokkelen, charged by the Merchants' Loan and Trust company, of Chicago, with having made away with $45,000 of its money, left here last night for Chicago in charge of the United States Consul T. T. Crittenden, who had accompanied him from the City of Mexico. Vanbokkelen said he was glad to get back again. He had soon become tired of being a fugitive in Mexico, he said, and went to Consul Crittenden for advice. The latter told him it would be better for him to come back and stand trial. As Governor Crittenden was about to start for the states, the young man came along with him.

The President's Return to Washington.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The presidential family was reunited in Washington last evening. President Cleveland reached the city by water in the afternoon and Mrs. Cleveland and the children arrived by train over the Pennsylvania railroad at 11:19 p. m. The president's summer outing at Gray Gables has had a very beneficial effect on him, and he returns invigorated for the winter's work at the capital. The chief executive will have but a brief rest, for next week he goes to Atlanta to pay a visit to the exposition.

Ellis Being Taken Back to Braden.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 16.—Jeff Ellis, the negro captured near Holly Springs, Miss., is now on his way back to Braden, Tenn., the scene of his crime, in custody of three officers. He has confessed as to the offense, and also says he murdered Mrs. Wilcox, of the same locality, some time ago. In this case the woman's husband went crazy from the shock, and died in an asylum. Ellis adds that he tried to assault a young girl while escaping into Mississippi, but did not succeed. He will almost certainly be lynched on arrival at Braden.

Riotous Servian Students.

AGRAM, Austria, Oct. 16.—Disorders have occurred here arising from the animosity existing between the Servians and the Croatians. The latter made an attempt to remove the Servian flags from various buildings, and conflicts ensued. The gendarmes were obliged to disperse the mob with fixed bayonets. Besides being the capital of Crotia and Slavonia, the city is a seat of various seminaries and gymnasiums, and the student element forms a rather turbulent character of the population.

Another Alliance Affair.

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—The Atlas line steamer Alene, which was fired on by a Spanish gunboat while passing Cape Maysi on Sept. 26, arrived yesterday afternoon. Captain Seiders is at a loss to account for the conduct of the Spaniards, as his steamer was displaying her usual signals. He will make a report to his company, which may bring the incident to the attention of the state department.

President's Day at Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Oct. 16.—The arrangements for the great street demonstration for president's day, Oct. 22, at the exposition have been completed. All of the oldest and most important military companies in the south will participate, and Governors O'Ferral of Virginia and Coffin of Connecticut, with their staffs, will be in line.

Durrant's Trial Postponed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—The trial of Theodore Durrant has been continued until Monday next on account of the illness of Attorney Dupray, leading counsel for the defense. Judge Murphy announced that the trial would be resumed next Monday whether Mr. Dupray should have recovered in the meantime or not.

Wholesale Pardons by Governor Altgeld.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Governor Altgeld yesterday pardoned a bunch of 112 girls from the Evanston Industrial school. The pardon applies to every prisoner in the school, and is the result of the unfavorable report made by a committee which investigated the institution. The girls range in age from 5 to 21 years.

Four Injured in a Football Game.

LAWRENCEVILLE, N. J., Oct. 16.—Princeton defeated Lawrenceville yesterday by the score of 38 to 0. The Tigers depended upon their weight, while the Lawrenceville played a scientific and strategic game. Riggs, Rhodes, Armstrong and Pope, of Princeton, were injured and taken out of the game.

Portuguese Sue for Peace.

BOMBAY, Oct. 16.—The Portuguese officials in Goa, finding themselves unable to resist successfully the strength of the insurgents, have offered the mutineers unconditional amnesty and immunity from any future penalty for their recent revolt, on condition that they disarm.

THE FINAL DEMANDS

Of European Governments on the Sultan of Turkey.

AN ULTIMATUM WILL COME NEXT.

The Demands but Slightly Modified from Those of May Last—Details of the Recent Massacre of Armenians at Akhissar.

The Discontent in Crete.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 16.—M. Cambon, the French ambassador; M. Nelidoff, the Russian ambassador, and Sir Phillip Currie, the British ambassador, on Monday presented to Said Pasha, the minister of foreign affairs, the final demands of the Powers for Armenian reforms. If this is not accepted an ultimatum will be presented. No further modifications will be permitted.

The scheme drops the demand for a Christian high commissioner, but otherwise it is almost identical with the proposals of last May. It is believed, however, that Russia hesitates to force an acceptance, because she fears ultimate Armenian autonomy.

News received from Trebizonde is to the effect that a Russian postal steamer is lying there with 2,000 Christian refugees on board. Two other vessels, also full of refugees, are there awaiting the arrival of Russian ships to transport them to Batoum.

Reliable news has been received here that fifty Armenians were killed and a number wounded at Akhissar, in the villayet of Aiden, on the Anatolian railway, by a Moslem mob. The slaughter occurred on Oct. 9, which was market day, when many Armenians had gathered from adjacent villages.

Early in the morning a Turkish rough, finding that the Armenians were not armed, picked a quarrel and shot one of them. There was then raised on all sides the cry: "Why hesitate to massacre the infidels?" A mob of Turks, armed with revolvers and knives, then looted the market and massacred the helpless Armenians. Their bodies were thrown into the wells. It is stated that the mudir was responsible for the attack.

No women or children were injured, probably on account of the arrival of Kaimaikan from the village of Gieve, three miles distant, who made valiant efforts at the risk of his own life to safe the Christians. Otherwise the slaughter would have been complete.

The panic is reviving in Constantinople, on account of the continued isolated attacks, and the Armenians are again flocking into the churches. The police disregard the safe conduct cards given to the Armenians by the foreign embassies, and they insult and maltreat the holders of them.

The Constantinople correspondent of the London Standard blames the Armenian revolutionary committees for forcing the Armenians to close their shops and to maintain the appearance of a panic when the Armenians themselves are ready to resume business.

"I visited the prison," the correspondent says, "and questioned the prisoners, and found that there were no serious complaints against the police. The inspecting commission sent a list of fifty-six prisoners for liberation while I was there. The revolutionary leaders are responsible for the continuance of the deadlock."

The Discontent in Crete.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—A dispatch from Athens, describing the growing discontent with Turkish rule on the Island of Crete, says that a band of a thousand armed Christians recently met at Klima to petition the sultan to restore the charter abolished in 1889, and for a reform of taxation and of the gendarmerie. The governor of Crete sent troops against the petitioners, who withdrew to the mountain fastnesses, whither the troops did not dare to follow. They now threaten to foment a rebellion in favor of annexation to Greece. The Greek government, fearing complications, deprecates such a Cretan movement, but the situation is perilous.

Milwaukee's Two Days' Jubilee.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 16.—Milwaukee started her two days' jubilee this morning at sunrise—the celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the change from a village to a municipal corporation. Never was the city so gaily illuminated and decked in flags and bunting. At 8 o'clock committees met the gubernatorial parties from Minnesota, Iowa, Michigan and Wisconsin. This afternoon there will be a civic parade of different organization, aggregating 17,000 persons. In the evening there will be an illuminated bicycle parade, in which 5,000 men and women will take part.

No Threat to Spain.

MADRID, Oct. 16.—El Nacional says that the Spanish government has not received any threat from the government of the United States respecting the reception or treatment of the United States consul at Havana, Mr. Ramon O. Williams. El Nacional adds that the government of Spain, in consequence of the friendly representations of the government of the United States, has recognized the American consul as a diplomatic agent.

American Ship Burned at Sea.

She is a total loss. Several of her crew landed at Valparaiso in one of the ship's boats, but the captain, chief mate and nineteen of the crew, who left the wreck in boats, are still missing.

ALL HARMONY IN ALBANY.

CAPITAL CITY DEMOCRATS AT LAST THOROUGHLY UNITED.

BIG VICTORY ASSURED,

Some High-Toned Senatorial Nominations—Decapitation of Democratic Veterans Continues—Superintendent Skinner Takes Care of His Own.

Special Albany Letter.

The most important event on the political calendar of Albany this year, and one that will be far-reaching in its effect and results throughout the entire State, is the complete restoration of Democratic local harmony.

Unpleasantness and disaffection began to manifest itself in the local situation here some years ago, but was first openly felt two years ago when with other causes it resulted in the election of a Republican mayor. Since that time there have been two Democratic organizations, and a deplorable rivalry and bitterness have existed in consequence.

Though the efforts of distinguished and cool-headed Democrats in both organizations, and some identified with neither, the breach has been entirely healed over and a harmony effected that is not merely on the surface but is genuine and substantial. A fair and amicable recognition of both elements upon the ticket and in the organization is the basis upon which so eminently satisfactory a result has been attained. Democrats throughout the State should know that it is in no small measure due to the efforts of the Hon. Norton Chase, our candidate for Attorney-general, that the result has been brought about.

Meantime, the local Republicans have a quarrel on their hands the like of which the Democratic difference never approached in its worst day. The Platt-Barnes faction followed up its July snap primaries by refusing a renomination to Mayor Wilson or any conciliation whatever to the large Republican element he represents, and it looks now like two Republican city and county tickets throughout. The Republican farmers are indignant at the refusal to renominate Assemblyman Frank Bloomingdale, and say that Barnes has given everything to the city. All in all, the signs point to a big Democratic victory here on everything in sight.

DESERVING TO WIN.

If deserving success is half of achieving success, as it is, the Democratic party ought to carry the next legislature. The nominations reported are uniformly men who are of absolutely spotless character, a high grade of popularity, and great personal independence, whom it would be an absurdity to charge with any machine leanings.

In the 24th Senate district, the Democratic nominee against Boss Payn's man Daley, nominated against Gov. Morton's wishes and by trickery of Payn and Fish, is William Church Osborne, a man of high character who served in the constitutional convention.

In the 27th district the Democrats have selected Judge Henry V. Borst, of Amsterdam, able, popular, and fitted for the place. He never yet ran for office without receiving hundreds of complimentary votes from Republican neighbors, and that he will defeat Hobart Krum is generally predicted. John B. Judson, the next Comptroller, and DeWitt C. Dow, the next State Treasurer, both live in this district.

Barent W. Stryker, the Democratic nominee in the 30th district, C. O. McCreedy, in the 28th, George Dickey, in the 23d, Lexow's district, Hiram Walworth, in the 31st, Charles D. Murray, in the 50th, and Philip W. Ryder, in the 36th, are men who are more than the compeers of their opponents in ability and fitness and are not collared by Boss Platt.

In the 35th district, Jefferson and Lewis, the Democrats have united with the grangers and anti-monopolists to try to defeat Senator Mullin, who has occupied the position of a paid attorney of the Central Railroad while acting as chairman of the finance committee of the Senate. Leman W. Tyler will make the run against Mullin, and although the odds are great the opponents of monopoly believe they can leave the Central's attorney leisure to attend exclusively to his law practice.

In the 39th district Judge S. Edwin Day, of Moravia, a popular and upright Democrat who always runs away ahead of his ticket, has already developed such strength that his opponent, Ben Wilcox, is frantically begging of Platt for money to save the district.

In the 42d district County Judge J. Henry Metcalf has acceded to the demands of decent Republicans for a candidate they can vote for without a blush. He will defeat John Raines.

In the 45th the Democrats have nominated against Col. T. E. Ellsworth, in whose interest the voice of the Niagara caucuses was stilled by devious and dark political methods, County Judge David Millard of Lockport, who carried that close and doubtful county in 1889 by a large and enthusiastic majority.

Evidently, citizens who want to vote for clean, independent and able men for the legislature, and an end of the Platt style, have cause to be gratified at the Democratic response to their desires.

SOME MORE CLEAN SWEEPS.

Election is at hand, and the Platt crowd is thoroughly frightened and resorting to the only means it knows of carrying elections — passing around more spoils. Consequently, Superintendent Easton of the department of public buildings has summarily and without cause decapitated a hundred worthy employes to make places a little later on for Platt heelers. Of the decapitated, some have seen many years in the service, and a number are vterans of the old war, a new and significant illustration of Republican love for the old soldier except on election day.

Superintendent Skinner of the department of public instruction on the same day discharged Myron A. Cooney, financial clerk, a man with so good a record that Gov. Morton had urged and Skinner promised his retention, to make a place, it is well understood, for Supt. Skinner's own brother. This is the same Charles R. Skinner who was kept in office in the same department three long years by courtesy of Democratic Superintendent Crooker.

UNITY AND VICTORY.

Figures That Prove That United the Democracy Must Carry the State.

In 1888 the Democratic vote for Governor in this State was 650,464 and the Republican vote 631,293. Gov. Hill's plurality over Miller was 19,171.

In 1891 the Democratic vote for Governor was 582,893 and the Republican vote 534,956. Flower's plurality over Fassett was 47,937, on a total vote 68,000 less on the Democratic side and 97,000 less on the Republican than in 1888.

In 1892 Cleveland's vote was 654,867 and Harrison's 609,350, a Democratic plurality of 45,518.

In 1893 the Democratic vote fell to 520,614 for Secretary of State, a loss of 115,143 from the vote of 1888 for President, while the Republican vote fell to 545,098, a loss of 103,661.

Last year the vote for Hill was 517,710 and the vote for Morton 673,818, a Republican plurality of 156,108. The Democratic loss from 1892 was 137,155 and the Republican gain 64,468.

These figures are interesting not only as showing the extraordinary fluctuations of politics in this State, but as demonstrating the importance of a on a full poll.

There has not been an election in twenty years at which the result would not have been reversed by a change change of even thirty thousand votes of that number on a full vote. The result of The World's inquiries among the German-Americans in the cities, as published on Friday, shows a deep and widespread revolt of Republican voters on the excise and blue-law issue. There can be no doubt that this defection is sufficient to give the Democrats the State if they poll their full vote for an off year.

There is no reason this year why any Democrat should vote the Republican State ticket, but many reasons, in the return of prosperity, in the bad Republican record in the last Legislature and especially in the odious blue-law issue, why many Republicans should vote the Democratic ticket, both being made up of men of equal character and ability.

The result, therefore, resolves itself into the question, Will the Democrats turn out and vote in full numbers? It is obvious from the cold figures that they can win if they do.—New York World.

BALLOT LAW POINTERS.

Some Facts About the New Raines Ballot Law.

1. The column on the official ballot headed by a star will contain all the regular Democratic State and local nominations for all offices to be voted for. Watch for the star.

2. Directly beneath the star (the official emblem of the Democratic party) there will be a circle. A mark in that circle, thus: X, with a pencil having black lead will be counted as a vote for all of the Democratic candidates, State and local. Make an X mark in the circle directly beneath the star.

3. Remember that any mark whatsoever on a ballot, except the cross mark (X) within the circle beneath the emblem, or opposite a candidate's name makes it a marked ballot, and void, and it cannot be counted. This is extremely important — a line drawn through a candidate's name, or across an emblem or device, marks the ballot and it cannot be counted at all.

4. Remember that a mark with any other colored lead than black makes your ballot void and it cannot be counted.

5. The simplest, surest, and easiest way to register your vote against 3.24 tax-rates is to make an X in the circle beneath the star, thereby voting for all the Democratic candidates.

Popular at Home.

Dozens of columns might be printed showing the fact that the Democratic State ticket candidates are uniformly strongest where they are best known.

Here is a sample, being an editorial comment of the Schoharie Union, the only Republican paper published in that locality, on the candidacy of Hon. DeWitt C. Dow for State Treasurer:

"As we predicted some weeks ago Cashier Dow, of Cobleskill, was nominated for State Treasurer at the Democratic convention at Syracuse. He will make a big run in Schoharie county and receive at least 2,500 majority and of this amount Cobleskill will give him more than 500 majority. He will run ahead of his ticket everywhere in the State as his opponent on the Republican ticket is handicaped, (Colvin), because of the negro equal rights law passed last winter. This law will make for Mr. Dow thousands of votes in the State."

First Registration Oct. 11.

It will be necessary to have the registry changed if a voter has moved to another house in the same election district after he has registered. The days of registration are October 11, 12, 18 and 19, and the hours of registration are from 8 o'clock a. m. to 9 o'clock p. m.

Another Democratic Triumph.

The Merion Worsted mills, of West Conshohocken, Pennsylvania, which have been shut down since August 1, 1893, will resume operations October 1. Orders have been secured sufficient to keep the mills running six months. Nearly 200 hands will find employment.

Aid for Illiterates.

A voter may have assistance to prepare his ballot if by reason of physical disability or illiteracy he requires aid. Oath to that effect must be made when registering, whether the inspectors ask the question or not

Election Nov. 5.

Polls open at 6.44 in the morning and close at 4:44 in the afternoon. Employers must allow workingmen two hours' time in which to vote without deduction from salary or wages.

No Electioneering.

No person will be permitted to do any electioneering within 100 feet of a polling place. The limit has been reduced from 150 feet.

COLOR SCHEME FOR SMALL HOUSE.

Let Old Blue Predominate In Parlor, Library and Dining Room.

How few people when furnishing a small house or flat remember that old blue is one of the happiest colors to choose for a foundation, writes Frances Ann Headley in The Ladies' Home Journal. In a house where, as a rule, all the rooms open into one another, especial care must be taken to preserve harmony. It is better then to select one color which shall run through all the rooms. Old blue is the color par excellence in such a case, combined with tan, gray or white for the rugs, while the same scheme prevails in the heavy draperies.

A lovely little house in mind has a parlor and library in one. The large rug, covering the greater part of the room, is old blue and gray. In front of the fireplace is a long, light gray fur one. A broad, low lounge is covered with dark gray. It is always better to cover a lounge in a solid color, as it takes more kindly to the pillows of endless hues. The large dining room rug is old blue and tan, with smaller rugs of tawny brown. The bedroom has an old blue and white large rug and white fur smaller ones. Let old blue predominate everywhere in the floor furnishings and draperies, but not to the exclusion of all other hues elsewhere, for where one color only is used the effect as a whole is flat. Let there be odd bright colors here and there in the way of pillows, lamp shades, odd bits of china and bric a brac, but with always an eye to what is the proper color for each room. When all furnished be careful to see whether all of the rooms blend into a beautiful harmony.

In a bedroom white enameled or birds-eye maple is exquisite where two or three pieces of fresh old mahogany are added. Each heightens the other's beauty in a most charming manner. A room furnished entirely in mahogany gives a heavy, dismal effect, but in a parlor and library combined, say in a flat or small house, place a large, quaintly carved old desk and one of those highly polished, round card tables, and see what an air they give to the modern and equally beautiful furniture. In the dining room a square mahogany table with a surface like glass, and even a small buffet or china cabinet, will be quite enough of the antique to set off everything else in the room. Have exquisitely drawn linen doilies, candles in rose colored shades and a profusion of, say, pink carnations and you have a lovely lunch table. In a house the hall should be a leading feature—enticing, not cold, bare and cheerless, repelling one from further acquaintance with the house and its mistress. A hall is like an introduction.

HERE'S A NUT TO CRACK.

A Puzzle That May Give a Leisure Mind Something to Think Of.

I have found the following interesting problem in an old notebook, writes Sir Walter Besant. I have no recollection at all of its origin. Perhaps everybody knows it. Perhaps everybody does not. Those who do not will find it, I think, unless they bring algebra to bear upon it, rather a tough nut to crack.

Here it is. Once there were three niggers—their wickedness is a negligible quantity; it does not enter into the problem—who robbed an orchard, carried away the apples in a sack, laid them up in a barn for the night and went to bed. One of them woke up before dawn, and, being distrustful of his friends, thought he would make sure of his share at once. He therefore went to the barn, divided the apples into three equal heaps—there was one over, which he threw away—and carried off his share. Another nigger then woke up with the same uneasiness and the same resolution. He, too, divided the apples into three heaps—there was one over, which he threw away—took his share, and carried it off. And then the third nigger woke up with the same emotions. He, too, divided the remaining apples into three portions—there was one over, which he threw away—took his share and departed.

In the morning every one preserved silence over his doings of the night; they divided the apples which were left into three heaps—one was over, which they threw away—and so took each his share. How many apples were there in the sack? There are many possible answers—a whole series of numbers—but let us have the lowest number of apples possible. Senior wranglers must be good enough not to answer this question. Moralists, if they please, may narrate the subsequent history of these three niggers, apart from the problem of their apples.

Japanese English.

Commander Wilde, United States navy, presented to his kinswoman, Miss Louise Washington of North Easton, a silk handkerchief which some enterprising merchant in Yokohama furnishes to patrons for advertising purposes. As an illustration of Japanese English the following words which decorate the four sides of the border are unique and worthy of preservation in print:

"My wife constantly trading the various clothes of the domestic and the foreigner. Although I was advised by the every foreigner, at this time I have made the nice handkerchief of the different specious silk and began to sell it. Then I was obsessed with the honor on the several portions. Thence whatever will perform truly for something, and it will sell lower price for everybody's wants. Please I beg consequently to obtain the more favors and the many produces. But the all colors of the handkerchiefs that be done by the one method will by free burdless for washing it."—Boston Commonwealth.

NINE WERE DROWNED

By the Capsizing of the Steamer Freddie M.—Arrival of Survivors.

New Orleans, Oct. 16.—The steamer City of Dallas, just arrived from Belize, brought several surviving passengers of the lost steamer Freddie M., and full particulars of the accident.

The Freddie M., which was an American vessel of 300 tons burden, was on the northern coast of British Honduras capsized last Thursday in Chetumal, or Espiritu Santo bay near the coast of Yucatan, and about twenty miles from Corozal. She had on board passengers and a crew of 40 men and was struck by a heavy squall which overturned her in about eight feet of water.

Part of the boat became detached by the accident, forming rafts, on which the surviving passengers found safety. The passengers and crew spent the night and all next day on these rafts, undergoing great suffering, and were rescued the next night, some of them in a thoroughly exhausted condition. It was then found that Mr. G. Bonnifay of New Orleans, W. R. McDonald, H. Harlson, I. McCoy and Mrs. M. Rabedo of Belize, Mrs. Wordsworth of Grand Cayman and her son and daughter, and one of the crew named Toby had been drowned. The survivors were well cared for at Corozal.

Jumped Three Stories to Escape Cremation

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 15.—Smith & Meyer's laundry works on Twenty-seventh street burned late yesterday afternoon, the fire originating in the explosion of a gasoline generator. Four women and a man working on the third floor found their escape cut off, and jumped from the windows. Mrs. Lou Miller had both legs broken, and will die. Frenie Miller, her daughter, had an arm broken and hip dislocated; Claudis Clark, leg broken. An unknown girl was probably fatally burned about the face and shoulders.

Fire at Atlanta's Exposition.

Atlanta, Oct. 15.—Temporary excitement was created on the exposition grounds yesterday afternoon by a fire on the Midway. The explosion of a gasoline stove in the Old Plantation at the eastern extremity of the Midway set the frame structure on fire, and there was a panic among the freaks on the Midway. The fire was soon under control, but the Old Plantation exhibit was destroyed. The phantoscope, next door, suffered $50 damage and Hagenbach's wild beast arena suffered to the extent of $100.

Tragedy of a Freight Car.

Petersburg, Va., Oct. 16.—On the arrival of the freight train from Norfolk about 11 o'clock last night the badly battered body of a well dressed white man, apparently 25 years of age, was found lying in an empty coal car. He was so horribly battered about the head and face as to be unrecognizable. He died soon after. He is believed to be William M. Wood, who was formerly in the navy.

The Negro Colonists.

Eagle Pass, Tex., Oct. 16.—Station Agent George, of the Southern Pacific, has been instructed by the general office not to transport any more negro colonists, there being some hitch as to the guarantee of their fare by the Birmingham people, who have engaged their services. Consul Sparks has wired to Washington asking for instructions regarding sixty-seven negroes released from quarantine.

A Burglar Blows His Arm Off.

Blakeslee, O., Oct. 16.—Frank Fisher was caught in the act of robbing the post-office. He used dynamite to blow open the safe door, and by careless handling of the explosive he had part of his left arm blown off and his face badly disfigured. Despite this he made an effort to get away with the $150 in money the safe contained, but, weak from loss of blood, he was compelled to desist, and was caught.

Unearthed a Prehistoric Cemetery.

Milford, O., Oct. 16.—Upon Upperstone Lick Creek, near here, Mr. Cowen, a surveyor, while engaged in laying off some property, found a prehistoric cemetery of great extent, containing thousands of graves. W. K. Morehead, curator of the state museum, opened some of them and found pipes, cipher ordinates, beads, pearls, spear ornaments and other trinkets.

Swindled Many Young Englishmen.

Montreal, Oct. 15.—The city police, acting on instructions from the British government, are looking for a man named Atkinson on a charge of enticing young Englishmen to Kansas City on the promise of steady employment. It is stated that the game has been extensively played between Liverpool and this port. Atkinson brought out a party of fourteen by the Vancouver on her last trip, and it is alleged that no less than a hundred young men have been thus brought out this season. It is said that each of the young men paid $200 to Atkinson.

REGISTRATION DAYS.

Friday and Saturday of this week, October 18 and 19, are the last days on which voters can register.

Every Democrat should register.

No registry, no vote.

Democrats, register, register, register!

The Democratic State Convention at its meeting in New York, last night, appointed a harmony committee, which will endeavor to unite Tammany and the Grace Democrats in support of legislative candidates.

Warner Miller could not be kept out of New York city and, last night, at Cooper Union, he spoke for Sunday observance and the Republican State platform, and against Sunday beer and the Republican city platform. A great party is the G O. P. in this campaign, with its lures out for the votes of the good and the wicked,—the Sabbath keeper and the Sabbath breaker the Democratic candidate for Senator from this district, was born in Nyack, Jan 1st, 1842, where he has always lived.

HON. GEORGE DICKEY,

His father was William Dickey, the well known boat builder, with whom the son learned the trade and carried on the business successfully for a number of years.

He was educated in the Nyack public school and afterwards became a member of the Board of Education of that body.

Was elected for six successive times Supervisor of Orangetown and became its chairman. Has always been a consistent Democrat. Was elected to the Assembly in 1886 and 1887, and won a most creditable legislative record.

On the first of January last he completed his term of office as Sheriff of Rockland county, which position he filled in an acceptable manner.

He has for thirty-three years been and still is an active fireman, having served fourteen years as Chief Engineer of the Nyack Fire Department and still holds a position as its secretary.

Mr. Dickey is in every way qualified to fill the office for which he has been nominated, and if elected he will prove a worthy representative, who will serve his constituents faithfully and not be the tool of any boss.

THE BLANKET BALLOT

The Herald quotes a New York politician as discoursing as follows, concerning the new blanket ballot:

Why, any man who ain't had the chargee of eddication is bound to be rattled by them emblems and the printin' under 'em. Spos'n he's a sailor, and the first thing that strikes his eye is that full rigged ship. He's not goin' back on his profession. Or, spos'n he is a blacksmith, and his peepers light on that arm bearin' the hammer; or, if he's in the undertakin' business and sees that flowin' fountain of the Prohibition party, which looks more like a monument to the dear departed than anythin' else, is he likely to pin himself to stars, or shamrocks, or even the American eagle? I tell you, it's a great act!"

—An ardent admirer of Mr. Messiter is claiming that Rockland ought to give him a big vote on account of the fish hatchery. The hatchery would seem to be a boomerang and as likely to hit in either direction. If Rockland should give Mr. Messiter a big majority because of it, the other towns along the road might be expected to vote against him because they didn't get it. I am not going to say one word against Mr. Messiter, as he is far superior to the convention that nominated him and to those who manipulated it. Mr. Krenrich's German fellow citizens will, however, roll up a big majority for the State and county Democratic tickets. Callicoon will be heard from this fall as never before.

—George Cochran, of the firm of Campbell, Sprague & Co., of Roscoe, has or will soon retire from the firm. This firm has been in existence for the past decade without a break by death or any other cause, and its many patrons will regret to see the present change take place.

—While potatoes are so low in price, twenty to twenty-five cents a bushel, it does not follow that they will remain so for any great length of time, as farmers are feeding them to stock of all kinds, and the surplus will in consequence soon be used up.

—More flag stone has been got out the present year along the O and W. than in any previous year of its history. The business has been conducted by good, safe and reliable men, who have as a rule paid for all they bought. Prices have not ruled high by any means, and wages paid the men have been considerably lower than in years past. Yet on the whole the stone business has held its own pretty well with bright prospects ahead.

DROWNED IN GREENWOOD LAKE.

The Body of a Wealthy New York Woman Found Floating in the Lake.

Coroner Decker was summoned to Greenwood Lake, last evening, to investigate the death of a woman who was found floating in three feet of water, near the Windermere Hotel dock, yesterday afternoon. The body proved to be that of a wealthy maiden lady, of New York, Miss Eleanor V. M. Bloomfield, who had been stopping at the hotels in that vicinity for the past week. She boarded at the Ferncliffe Hotel until Thursday last, when she removed to the Windermere. She started for a walk Monday evening after supper, and it is presumed she was stricken with apoplexy and fell into the water. A verdict of accidental drowning was returned by the jury.

Mr. Charles A. Bloomfield, of Metuchen, N. J, a brother of the deceased, arrived at Greenwood Lake, this morning, and took charge of the remains, which were taken to her home in New York city.

A small but appreciative audience was present at the Casino, last night, the attraction being the railroad play, "Side Tracked." A great many specialties were introduced throughout the performance, and encores were frequent and well deserved.

Missing Joseph Waldron Heard From.

Joseph Waldron, the carpenter, who left town suddenly a few weeks ago, has been heard from, having written to his children. Mrs. Waldron feels that the facts that have come out as to the muddled condition of his financial affairs are a complete reputation of the cruel report that he left home to escape her unreasonable jealousy.

A HAPPY EVENT.

A Remarkably Family Re-union at the Crane Homestead.

From Our Circleville Correspondent.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Crane, of near Circleville, was the scene of a most joyous family reunion, Sunday last.

All of the children of the aged couple for the first time in several years were gathered under the paternal roof.

Mr. and Mrs. Crane celebrated their golden wedding three years ago, but all their offspring were not present on that occasion, as in this instance. There were nine children born to Mr. and Mrs. Crane, of whom seven are living, namely: J. J. Crane, of Circleville; H. H. Crane, of Middletown; Sarah E. Crane, of New York city; Rev. Josiah E. Crane, of Schodack, N. Y.; J. E. D. Crane, of Fair Oaks; Mrs. S. S. Arthur, of Chelsea, Indian Territory; Mrs. Nelson Mance, of Watsontown, Pa.

The hours were most delightfully passed in social intercourse, the singing of sacred songs and the concluding doxology.

The children of the venerable couple again separated for their several homes, filled with gratitude to the Giver of all blessings.

AN EXCISE LAW CASE.

Mrs. Spellman Charged by Commissioner Hill With Sunday Selling.

Excise Commissioner John W. Hill appeared before Recorder Bradner, this morning, and made an affidavit upon information and belief, to the effect that Mrs. Catharine Spellman, of Prince street had sold "ale-beer" to a minor, Charles Repp, eleven years old, and that the offence was committed on Sunday September 29 He asked that Repp be subpœnaed.

The boy was brought into court and made a sworn statement that he had entered Mrs. Spellman's saloon on the last Sunday in September and had bought and paid for a pint of ale-beer, and had received the change from Mrs. Spellman. That he bought the ale for a Mr. Stanton who had sent him for it.

Mrs. Spellman was arrested and a hearing was set for two o'clock this afternoon when the case was adjourned until Oct. 29.

HYMENEAL.

Sweezey—Sharpe.

The wedding of Dr. Fred Wickham Sweezy and Miss Anna Frances Sharpe will take place at 7:30 o'clock, this evening, at the Reformed Church, at Port Jervis. A reception will follow from 8 to 10 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Sharpe, No. 152 Pike street.

Dr. Sweezy was formerly a resident of this city, and is an honorary member of Excelsior Hook and Ladder Company. Several members of that organization will attend the wedding. Dr. Fred C. Royce, of this city, will officiate as groomsman.

Death from Diphtheria Near Bullville

From Our Bullville Correspondent.

The eleven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Crawford, of whose illness from diphtheria I made mention, a few days ago, died at 11.30 o'clock, yesterday, and was buried that afternoon in the Crawford family cemetery at Coliabar. The disease spent its force, Sunday, but the little sufferer had not vitality enough to rally from its effects' I am happy to say that none of Mr. and Mrs. Crawford's other children have contracted the disease and it is hoped they will escape. Mr. and Mrs. Crawford have the sympathy of all in their bereavement, which is the second one they have sustained in a year, a little babe having died in February last, at the time of the blizzard, and it may be remembered that I noted at the time that, on account of the storm and the banks, it was nearly a week before they could bury the baby.

"The Common People.

As Abraham Lincoln called them, do not care to argue about their ailments. What they want is a medicine that will cure them. The simple, honest statement, "I know that Hood's Sarsaparilla cured me," is the best argument in favor of this medicine, and this is what many thousands voluntarily say.

THE TELEGRAPHIC "THIRTY."

How the Cipher, Which Is Now Universal, Had Its Origin.

I attended a funeral the other day where there was a lovely flower piece with the figures "30" in the center. The deceased had been familiar all his life with that signal, having been connected with telegraph or newspaper business for nearly 30 years, and yet I doubt if even he or any one who contributed to the flower piece knew or dreamed how 30 came to mean anything, especially finis, or the end.

As a part in telegraph history I will explain how this signal, which has come to mean so much, had its origin. Like a great many other expressions, it was started accidentally, as it were. In the infancy of the telegraph business dispatches were sent paid or collect, many of them abbreviated in telegraphing, and all newspaper dispatches were not only abbreviated, but sent collect. There were no news agencies then, as now, and papers had friends in all the towns, who were authorized to send them dispatches to be called for.

Every beginner in the art of telegraphy was given a book of abbreviations and signals, which he had to commit to memory and practice till he became expert in their use. Among those signals that of 30 was found, and it meant "collect pay at the other end." Whether a news dispatch or common business message, if not prepaid, the signal 30 was attached. As all press dispatches were paid for where received, they all had 30 at the end. So when news agencies began their work the signal was retained, for they were still paid for where received.

This signal has come in these days to be a universal finis to all press dispatches, private, special and general, and a secondary meaning, or perhaps, better, a legendary meaning attaches itself as "the end" and is a proper and beautiful expression of the finis of a telegraph operator or any other person.

It well may be a signal to the spiritual dispatch of a human soul to the great center of rewards and as a notice to estimate its value when received and "collect pay at the other end."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

PURITANICAL LAWS.

How They Round Up Delinquent Debtors In Cultured Boston.

"Just wait till I catch him in Boston. Then I'll make him come to the center," remarked an angry man the other day while roasting a theatrical manager who owed him a few hundred dollars for services rendered. I told him that I supposed he would then clap the debtor into the Charles Street jail. "That's just what I will do if I ever catch him there, you bet." And then the mad actor explained how easy it was to get even with people of that sort in the Hub. No matter what the debt, nor where or how it was contracted, all one has to do is to enter a complaint and that settles it. If one who owes is averse to notoriety, he'll hardly take the poor debtor's oath, which releases him for a certain number of years, but does not wipe out his obligations, but will linger in the bastile until he can interest his friends or realize on his collateral and settle.

I know several New Yorkers who have run against creditors in the bean burg and have suffered. Some joke about their incarceration and the questions put to them during the process of administering the poor debtor's oath, but most all agree that the Boston law is a puritanical provision that should be materially amended. Bostonians who are dodging process servers are agitating a change that will permit them to pay up on the installment plan instead of being forced to cash in the full amount or remain a guest of the Charles street hotel. If such a law was on the New York statute books and was enforced here—well, the Tombs or some other prison would be holding hundreds who now look as if they owned the town instead of merely owing the townspeople. —New York Letter in Pittsburg Dispatch.

Poisoning by Tinned Food.

Some light is thrown by The Lancet upon the mysterious cases of poisoning by tinned food which from time to time are reported. They are believed to be due to neglect of the caution against eating tinned food that have been exposed to the air for some time after being opened. The exact manner in which poisonous substances, technically known as "ptomaines," are generated so rapidly is not known with certainty, but the fact that they are produced in sufficient quantity to cause very grave symptoms of poisoning has been brought out in a multitude of instances. In one well known case the first half of the contents of a tin of lobster was consumed with no ill effect, but the next two days afterward proved extremely poisonous. It is suggested that as a safeguard manufacturers might label the tin with some such notice as "The contents of this tin are perfectly wholesome when eaten fresh from the tin and afford good food, but the public is advised not to expose the contents for any length of time to the aggravating influences of the atmosphere." The Lancet writer even goes so far as to suggest that some such warning might be insisted on by the legislature.—London News.

Where We Are Going.

I find the great thing in this world is not so much where we stand as in what direction we are moving. To reach the port of heaven we must sometimes sail with the wind and sometimes against it. But we must sail and not drift, nor lie at anchor.—Oliver Wendell Holmes.

His Money All In.

"There's a man over there who is young and seems to be in love," said the man who is young and seems to be.

"Yes," replied his sympathetic friend, "I'm sure there is. I have been putting half my salary there for the last four years, and it's all there yet."—Washington Star.

Dr. PIERCE'S

Golden Medical

DISCOVERY

Cures Ninety-eight per cent. of all cases of Consumption, in all its Earlier Stages.

Although by many believed to be incurable, there is the evidence of hundreds of living witnesses to the fact that, in all its earlier stages, consumption is a curable disease. Not every case, but a large per centage of cases, and we believe, fully 98 per cent. are cured by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, even after the disease has progressed so far as to induce repeated bleedings from the lungs, severe lingering cough with copious expectoration (including tubercular matter), great loss of flesh and extreme emaciation and weakness.

Do you doubt that hundreds of such cases reported to us as cured by "Golden Medical Discovery" were genuine cases of that dread and fatal disease? You need not take our word for it. They have, in nearly every instance, been so pronounced by the best and most experienced home physicians, who have no interest whatever in misrepresenting them, and who were often strongly prejudiced and advised against a trial of "Golden Medical Discovery," but who have been forced to confess that it surpasses, in curative power over this fatal malady, all other medicines with which they are acquainted. Nasty cod-liver oil and its filthy "emulsions" and mixtures had been tried in nearly all these cases and had either utterly failed to benefit, or had only seemed to benefit a little for a short time. Extract of malt, whiskey, and various preparations of the hypophosphites had also been faithfully tried in vain.

The photographs of a large number of those cured of consumption, bronchitis, lingering coughs, asthma, chronic nasal catarrh and kindred maladies, have been skillfully reproduced in a great Family Doctor Book of 1000 pages, giving names and addresses sent on receipt of address and 21 cents in stamps to pay postage and wrapping only.

NOBLE WOMEN AND THEIR WORK.

Mrs. Turner and Mrs. Hirst, Angels of Mercy to the Veterans.

Two of the best friends the veterans of the Grand Army of the Republic possess are Mrs. Elizabeth A. Turner, the newly elected national president of the Woman's Relief corps, and Mrs. Catherine E. Hirst, who was recently chosen national president of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic. Mrs. Turner is a native of Windsor, Conn., and a resident of Boston. She was married at the age of 17 to Francis F. L. Turner and was a widow at 20. Thus bereft of a field at home where her benevolent spirit could appease suffering and make life more enjoyable, she turned her attention to the work of benefiting her countrymen. Her ancestors had been soldiers, and the martial spirit she inherited caused her to begin relief work for the Federal soldiers when they were fired upon in the early days of the civil war in Baltimore.

MRS. HIRST.

After the war her interest in the soldier continued, and in 1879 she became a member of the Woman's Relief corps, five years before it became a national body. Her first office was that of guard, the most lowly, and her faithful service in this and more important offices has caused the corps to unanimously elect her to the highest place in its gift. She is a woman of fine presence and has a marked executive ability and great force of character. Like Cæsar, she once refused the national presidency upon the ground that she loved the order better than she did her own ambition, but at Louisville recently she was persuaded to take the place.

Mrs. Hirst enjoys a peculiar distinction in these days of third term talk. She is the only member of the Ladies of the Grand Army of the Republic that has ever been twice elected to the office of national president. She is a native of New York and is the daughter of C. E. Drake, who served many years as a Scotch soldier. Her husband was a member of the One Hundred and Twenty-fourth infantry. Mrs. Hirst is now a resident of Louisville, but her name and her good work are known to soldiers all over the country. She has probably given decent burial to more indigent veterans than any other person, and her purse is always open for the relief of any man who fought for the flag. When the Louisville Soldiers' home was closed several years ago because of lack of funds, Mrs. Hirst from her own income supported 30 of the old soldiers and prevented them from going to the almshouse. She is the mother of six children, but always finds time to do charitable work.

SAVILLA IS FOR SILVER.

She Claims to Have Started the Free Coinage Movement In Illinois.

Miss Savilla T. Hinrichsen seems to be an excellent example of the new women of Illinois. She is a poet, a story writer, a journalist and a woman suffragist, and for two years she has been state librarian. She is also a sister of Buck Hinrichsen, secretary of state of Illinois, and, according to her story, she and her mother are responsible for the free silver excitement in the Democratic party in the Prairie State.

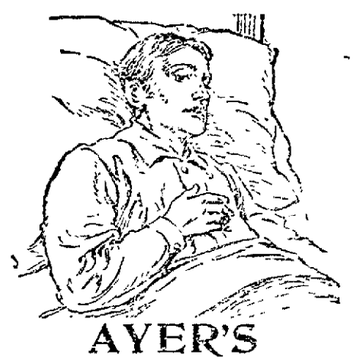
"I believe I was the first one to talk with my brother on the subject," she is reported as saying in an unguarded moment in Denver recently, "and mother gave him no peace until he became convinced that free silver was the issue and called the state convention."

Miss Hinrichsen was born in Morgan county, Ills., and attended the village school at Alexandria until she was 14 years of age. She then removed to Springfield to complete her education, and when sufficiently proficient taught school for a time. Newspaper work next claimed her attention, and she wrote stories and verse that were favorably received in Illinois. When her brother, William H. Hinrichsen, familiarly known as Buck Hinrichsen, was elected secretary of state two years ago, she was appointed state librarian of Illinois and has since held the position. She says the universal suffrage question is growing in Illinois, and she predicts that in a very few years women and men will enjoy equal rights in the state. "It is bound to come," she says, "and it would come at once if the women themselves were only educated up to it."

Still Mourning the Czar.

Russian journals are still in mourning for the late czar. They will continue to surround their front page with a border of black until a year has elapsed from the date of his death.



AYER'S

Cherry Pectoral

SAVED HIS LIFE

So says Mr. T. M. Reed, a highly-respected Merchant of Middletown, Ill., of a Young Man who was supposed to be in Consumption.

"One of my customers, some years ago, had a son who had all the symptoms of consumption. The usual medicines afforded him no relief, and he steadily failed until he was unable to leave his bed. His mother applied to me for some remedy and I recommended Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The young man took it according to directions, and soon began to improve until he became well and strong."—T. M. Reed, Middletown, Ill.

"Some time ago, I caught a severe cold, my throat and lungs were badly inflamed, and I had a terrible cough. It was supposed that I was a victim of consumption, and my friends had little hope of recovery. But I bought a bottle of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, took it, and was entirely cured. No doubt, it saved my life."—I. Jones, Emerts Cove, Texas.

NO GOOSEBERRY PIE FOR HER.

The Old Lady Had a Dinner That Surprised the Knowing Gamblers.

The old lady entered a restaurant which, rightly or wrongly, is known as the resort of the gay and careless. She was typically countrified in appearance, her spectacles resting on the bridge of her nose, her hat being old fashioned and her gait and general attitude those of one fresh from the little farmhouse.

Without, however, any sign of halting confidence that was to be expected of a stranger to city ways, she sat down at the most conspicuous table in the room. A surly looking short card player, who, although it was 6 o'clock in the afternoon, was just getting his breakfast, stared at her with curiosity. Two dejected turf gamblers, prevented from attending the races on that day by bad luck on the day before, who were solacing themselves with strong waters and who hadn't spoken to each other for half an hour, observed her with slight smiles.

"Well, now," said one, "that's a funny old girl to see in here. I remember seeing her kind in country towns when I was in the show business. I'll gamble on what she'll order. She'll have gooseberry pie and milk, and she'll eat the pie with her knife. They don't have no forks where she comes from."

But the other would not bet. He said merely and not unkindly, "She doesn't seem to fit this place."

They could not hear what she ordered, but they could see that there was nothing flippant in the attitude of the waiter who went to her. She ate with deliberation and then departed. One of the two unsuccessful patrons of the turf called the waiter and asked, "What did that old lady order?"

"Why, let's see," answered the waiter, "I think she had pigeon and a pint of fizz. She's very fond of both."

The gamblers looked surprised.

"Who is she?" asked one.

"Why, don't you know her?" queried the waiter. "That's Mlle. Lanconi, the head dancer in this new burlesque at the Jupiter theater."—New York World.

Home Thrust.

It is said that the saying, "Much may be done with a Scotchman if he be caught young," which has passed into a historical witticism, was first spoken by Dr. Johnson in reference to Lord Mansfield. An amusing little incident is said to have given rise to the remark.

Lord Mansfield, having received his education entirely in England, always considered himself an Englishman, but the fact that he was born in Scotland was once referred to with great effect.

General Sabine, governor of Gibraltar at the time, having failed in his attempts to extort money from a Jew sent him back by force to Tetuan, Morocco, from whence he had come to Gibraltar. The Jew afterward went to England and sued the governor for damages.

Lord Mansfield, who was then known as Mr. Murray, was counsel for the governor. In the course of his defense before the jury he said:

"True, the Jew was banished. But where? Why, to the place of his nativity! Where is the cruelty, where the hardship, where the injustice of banishing a man to his own country?"

Mr. Nowell, counsel for the Jew, retorted: "Since my learned friend thinks so lightly of the matter, I ask him to suppose the case his own. Would he like to be banished to his native land?"

The court rang with peals of laughter, in which Murray himself joined with a right good will.—Youth's Companion.

A Useful Dog.

"You say that I'm not altogether objectionable to your parents," he said ruefully.

"No," she replied, "father and mother both speak very highly of you."

"Then why does that big dog assault me every time I come near and chew a piece out of my clothes?"

"Oh, you mustn't mind Brutus. He's trained to do that. Aunty has gotten almost enough samples from him to make a lovely patchwork quilt."—Washington Star.

Old Time Postage Rates.

In 1813 postage rates in the United States were: Single letters by land, 40 miles, 8 cents; 90 miles, 10 cents; 150 miles, 12½ cents; 300 miles, 17 cents; 500 miles, 20 cents; over 500 miles, 25 cents. Double letters, twice the single rates, one ounce at the rate of four single letters.

It appears that a species of true crocodile is found in southern Florida on both coasts. It is hardly distinguishable from the alligator except by the shape of its head, though it grows bigger and attains a length of 18 feet.

Can it be true, as is so constantly affirmed, that there is no sex in souls? I doubt it exceedingly.—Coleridge.

How to be Handsome.

It is a mistake to suppose that the only way to be good looking is to be born so. Good health has more to do with good looks than anything else. Such diseases as constipation, dyspepsia, liver complaints, rheumatism, nervous disorders, &c., not only shorten life, but spoil tempers and "looks." Bacon's Celery King for the nerves cures these troubles. John J. Chambers sells it and will give a sample package free. 8

THE PRESIDENT COMING TO MIDDLETOWN.

The Sick May Receive Medical Services Free of Charge.

The President and members of the European and American Staff of German, English, Irish, Scandinavian and American Doctors of New York city will be at the Russell House, Middletown, on one day only. The sick and afflicted may consult them without charge during their stay.

Tuesday, October 29th,

If you are incurable they will tell you; therefore invalids must not take offence if they are rejected, as no case will be accepted unless there is a moral certainty of a cure being effected. These Doctors are graduates of the best universities of Europe and America; they are of the highest standing in the medical profession and have had unlimited experience in the treatment of all Chronic Diseases and Deformities. As the latest methods, instruments and appliances of the various schools of both the Old and the New World are familiar to and at the command of this staff of doctors, it is reasonable to believe that in ninety cases out of every hundred a cure can be effected, even when the patients have been given up as incurable by doctors who have had less experience. Do not be discouraged because your doctor cannot give you relief, or even if he tells you that you cannot get well, for it matters not what your disease may be, you can consult the doctors free, and, if curable, they will treat you; if incurable, they will give you such advice as will tend to prolong life and afford you the greatest relief.

The doctor visits Middletown one day each month. Will be at 21 Broom street, Port Jervis, Wednesday, Oct. 30th. Office hours from 10 20 a. m. to 5 p. m.

OBITUARY.

James N. Pronk.

James N. Pronk died at 4:45 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, and Middletown mourns to day, the loss of one of its foremost citizens, whose life for many years touched that of our city at many points, who was actively identified with its intellectual progress and its material development and whose taste and public spirit did more than that of any one man to make of Middletown the beautiful city of which we a e all so justly proud.

Mr. Pronk's last illness was of about two months' duration. On Saturday, Aug. 17th, he was in the cemetery, personally superintending the interment of Mrs. Cozzens, and although the day was very hot, he remained at his post till the body had been committed to the earth He was completely prostrated and had to be assisted to his home which he never again left. He suffered from no organic disease, but instead of gaining strength grew gradual'y weaker. His vital forces were exhausted; the wondrous mechanism of human life had run until it was worn out and was beyond the possibility of repair. With the passing of each day he grew noticeably weaker and in the latter part of last week beg n to complain of pains in the back, neck and head. His attending physician recognized in these symptoms warnings of a final collapse. Sunday morning there was an effusion of water on the brain and the patient lapsed into unconsciou - ness, in which condition he remained until death came as above stated.

Mr. Pronk was a son of Dr. John W. D. V. and Azubah Little Pronk and was born in Boston, Feb. 27, 1821. His father was a native of Amsterdam and was educated as a physician. He emigrated to this country in 1811 and while traveling about looking for a location came in Orange county, where he met, wooed and won Miss Little whom he married in 1812. He settled in Boston and resided there until 1839 when he removed to Middletown, making his home here until his death in 1848.

Mr. Pronk was educated in the English high school and public Latin school of Boston, which was then as now a famous educational institution. Among his classmates were Edward Everett Hall, O. B Frothingham, Senator Washburne and others who achieved fame and eminence in various walks of life. He completed his education at the Teachers' Seminary at Andover, Mass., from which he graduated with honor, and then removed with his parents to this county. He spent several years in teaching in Port Jervis and then coming to Middletown, studied law in the office of Judge Wilkin and was admitted to the bar as an attorney and counselor at law at the January term of the Supreme Court in 1849. He at once opened an office in this city and soon secured a lucrative practice.

In 1841, he married Mary Ellen, daughter of Albert P. Mondon, of Port Jervis, who survives him, as do the following sons and daughters: Francis A. R. and Ferris M., of this city; Devin N, of Yonkers; Louise, wife of James B. Carson, of this city; Mary, wife of Hiram Tate, of Warwick, and Nellie, wife of Frank P. S. Crane, of this city. A son, Ashbel C. K., died about ten yea s ago.

Mr. Pronk was one of a family of nine children. The only survivor is Mrs. Azubah L., wife of S. L. King.

Mr. Pronk was good lawyer and when actively engaged in the practice of his profession had a large clientage and for many years did a large share of the law business that was then done in Middletown. He was an able and successful advocate, his ready command of language and his convincing style of argument giving him a strong hold on juries. He was retained in many important cases and enjoyed to the fullest degree the confidence of his clients and the public generally. He was preeminently a safe counselor, his analytical mind enabled him to quickly grasp the essential facts in every case submitted to him, and his thorough knowledge of fundamental legal principles and his familiarity with decisions, precedents and statutory enactments made him such a master of the profession that when once his opinion was formed and given there was little dang r that it would be overthrown or set aside by judge or jury.

Mr. Pronk's mind was, however, too active and versatile and he had too high conceptions of the duties and responsibilities of citizenship to make h m content with a life given over to professional drudgery and meted and bounded by the four walls of a law office.

When he first came to Middletown it was only a small village, feeling the quickening pulses of a new life, as a result of the building of the Erie Railroad. Realizing that good local government was necessary for the village's growth and development along the proper lines, he was one of the first to suggest its incorporation and lent his voice and his influence to the carrying through of that measure, which was ratified by a vote of citizens, 123 for, 77 against, March 25 h, 1848

In 1849 Mr. Pronk was made clerk of the Board of Trustees and re-elected to that office in 1850, '51, '52 and '53, and again in 1855, '56 and '57. In 1860 he was elected President of the village and was continued in office for four years, retiring in 1861 He was again elected in 1876 and served for two years and again in 1884 the citizens called him to take charge of village affairs, electing him president by a very large majority.

Those of later generations, who remember only Mr. Pronk's last terms of service, knew him as the most tireless, painstaking and efficient executive that Middletown has ever known, but it was in his earlier administrations that he left his deepest impress on Middletown. He found many of its principal streets mere country roads. He had them widened, straightened, graded, curbed and guttered. Thousands of feet of stone sidewalks were laid and out of the chaos of haphazard and irregular growth he brought the order and neatness that made possible the Middletown of to-day.

In 1859, just before Mr. Pronk's first election as President, the citizens of Middletown had voted the funds necessary for the erection of Excelsior's and Eagle's houses on King street and of Phœnix's house on John street and for the equipment of two engine companies. Mr. Pronk thought the new department incomplete without a hook and ladder company and by individual effort raised a considerable sum by subscription for the purchase of a hook and ladder truck. This he supplemented by a very liberal contribution from his private purse, which is popularly believed to have been very much larger than the total amount subscribed by his fellow citizens, and thus made possible the purchase of the truck, which Excelsiors have used until now and which in its time was as fine a piece of apparatus as any company in the State could boast of.

Mr. Pronk, during his first terms as President of the village, looked closely after the in erests of the new department. Names of applicants for membership in the different companies were closely scrutinized and squared by the strictest standard of physical fitness and moral rectitude, and the high character thus stamped on the department has been maintained up to the present day. Mr. Pronk never lost his interest in Middletown's firemen. He was their staunch and loyal friend to the day of his death.

During the war Mr. Pronk was an ardent supporter of the Union cause. In 1863 he was appointed Provost Marshal for the Eleventh Congressional District, Orange and Sullivan counties, and had charge of the drafts made for filling the Union army. His office was a most responsible one. He had great power and his opportunities for enriching himself were almost limitless, but he scorned to take advantage of them and left the office poorer than when he entered it.

Mr. Pronk's foresight and knowledge of affairs made him quick to see that if Middletown was to grow and prosper, it must reach out and attract trade and business by providing better means of communication than rival villages offered, and so, in the early fifties, when the plank road fever was upon the country, he advocated the building of plank roads to Bloomingburgh and Unionville. He subscribed liberally to the stocks of both the proposed companies and was one of their incorporators when they were organized. The issue justified his faith in the schemes, for the Bloomingburgh road diverted to Middletown a large share of the traffic of Sullivan county, which had before gone to Newburgh and the Unionville road made tributary to Middletown for all time the trade of Southern Orange and Northern Sussex, which had before been the rich possession of Goshen and Newburgh. Mr. Pronk was also one of the incorporators of the Wallkill Bank, which was organized about this time to meet the demand for increased banking facilities demanded by the rapidly growing village.

After the war, when the necessity of railroad communication as a means of developing the country became generally understood, Mr. Pronk was one of th first m vers in a scheme to build a railroad south from Middletown through Wawayanda and Minisink and into New Jersey. Goshen, too, was awake to the advantages that it would derive from a railroad tapping this rich agricultural region, and there was a sharp struggle between Middletown and Goshen for the support and co-operation of the people of Minisink and Wantage. Mr. Pronk was Middletown's leader in this fight and it was largely through his shrewd diplomacy and bold generalship that Wantage and Minisink finally cast in their lot with Middletown and aided in the organization of the Middletown, Unionville and Water Gap Railroad Co. Mr Pronk was one of the incorporators of the company and was Secretary of its Board of Directors from the organization of the company until control of the company passed into the hands of the Susquehanna and Western interest. He was also one of the incorporators of the Midland Railroad of New Jersey, now the Susquehanna and Western, and was in its directory for several years.

In 1867 and '68, when the New York and Oswego Midland Railroad, now the New York, Ontario and Western, was being built across Northern and Central New York on its way to the Metropolis, Mr. Pronk was one of the first to see the advantages that would result to Middletown if the road could be brought to this city, and his far-reaching mind conceived the daring project of offering such inducements as would persuade the projectors of the enterprise to abandon their original plan of a route down the Neversink Valley from Fallsburgh to Port Jervis, and so across Sussex county to New York, in favor of a route through the Shawangunk Mountains at Bloomingburgh, and so across the town of Wallkill to Middletown. He was one of the hardest workers in securing the consent of Wallkill's taxpayers to the issuing of bonds in aid of the construction of the Midland road, and the issuing of those bonds determined the location of the road through Middletown, and secured to it the greatest prize in its history, for without the Midland road the Middletown of to-day and the greater Middletown of our dreams would have been impossible.

For several years Mr. Pronk was the attorney for the New York and Oswego and New Jersey Midland Railroad companies, and as their land agent secured rights of way for much of the line through Orange and Sullivan counties and in New Jersey.

Active and aggressive as Mr. Pronk was in behalf of Middletown's material interests he recognized that it was necessary for its intellectual development to keep step with its material progress, and therefore, a few years after he had cast in his lot with the then little village, he called together the most intelligent and progressive of his fellow citizens and the Middletown Lyceum was organized. Debates, lectures and a library and reading room made the Lyceum for years a potent factor in broadening and developing the village's range of thought and in directing the current of its intellectual life. The Lyceum was maintained for years, until Middletown had outgrown the need for such an institution, but during all the years of its existence Mr. Pronk was its loyal friend and most generous supporter.

Beautiful Hillside Cemetery is Mr. Pronk's best and greatest gift to Middletown. We owe to him its conception, its organization, its creation, its maintenance, its beauties. Impressed with the necessity of providing Middletown with a fitting resting place for the bodies of our loved ones who have gone before, Mr. Pronk, in 1860, interested a number of public spirited citizens in the formation of a cemetery association. He was chosen President of the association when it was organized and continued to hold the office up to the day of his death. After land had been purchased, by his advice and influence, Vaux & Olmstead, the best landescape gardeners in the country, who had been entrusted with the designing of New York's Central Park, were engaged to layout the cemetery. They made the most of the natural beauties of the fine site but what has since been done to add to the beauty and attractiveness of this loveliest of God's acres has been done by Mr. Pronk's taste, skill and untiring care. For years, the expenses of maintaining the cemetery exceeded its income, and while other members of the association grew tired of advancing money and abandoned their interest in the cemetery. Mr. Pronk never dreamed of faltering or of drawing back. We violate no confidence when we say that thousands upon thousands of dollars of his private fortune found their way into the treasury of the cemetery association. He almost impoverished himself that the cemetery might be maintained in fitting and becoming shape. To the neglect of his private interests he gave his time fully and unreservedly to the supervision of the cemetery. He was there early and late. For years he was present and personally looked after the details of every interment. He never received in return for all his services a fraction of what they were really worth. A superintendent, at a very modest salary, would have cost the association a great deal more each year than Mr. Pronk was paid. Hillside Cemetery was his chiefest pride, and it is not too much to say that he gave to it his means, the best years of his life, and even life itself, for he was stricken while in harness. Beautiful Hillside will always be associated with Mr. Pronk's memory, and will be his best and most enduring monument.

During all the years of his active and useful life Mr. Pronk found rest and recreation in the company of the best authors and his mind was richly stored with the fruits of wide and varied reading.

He was a man of positive convictions, not easily swayed by argument, yet those who differed from him most radically respected him for his honesty and sincerity. His private life was blameless and those who knew him best and most intimately were those who most respected and best loved him.

The funeral will probably be held, Friday afternoon, and it is the wish of the family to have it as private as possible.
